Professional Summary

Experienced professional withadiverse background in customer service, collections, IT support, and education. Over three years of expertise in customer service and collections at iQor Philippines, where I honed my communication, negotiation, and problem-solving skills. Transitioned into IT support with MEGA Overseas Manpower Recruitment Agency, providing efficient client-end assistance and technical troubleshooting. Served as an IT Instructor and Custodian at ACLC College of Mabalacat, demonstrating strong teaching capabilities, curriculum development, and system maintenance. Currently, I am an IT Instructor at Our Lady of Fatima University – Pampanga, where I design engaging lectures, develop course materials, and mentor students. A versatile and dedicated individual with a proven track record of adaptability, technical proficiency, and commitment to excellence in every role undertaken.
